Your banner will be published in the advertisement section of the E-newsletter. This email newsletter appears every Monday, Wednesday and Friday and is sent to our database, which currently consists of more than 25,000 energy professionals and is being expanded daily.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the European Energy Review. The main headline is "The Brussels climate train rolls on". The page includes a navigation menu, a "Report" section for "EU climate strategy" dated Monday, 1 March 2010, and a list of announcements for various events. An advertisement overlay on the right side features a red speech bubble that says "Add your banner on our email newsletter" and a circular graphic containing logos for Gasunie, Gastera, apx endex, energy valley, and WINGAS. Below the logos is an "Advertisements" section.
